

Julio Awad

“Thousand Miles” new solo album by Julio Awad, pianist & composer, in which he has brought together a group of star studded musicians to present his Jazz/New Age compositions.

The acoustic piano sparks in the opening “Tornado Tango”, an improvisation accompanied by two legendary musicians bass player Mark Egan and drummer Paul Wertico.

In other composition like “We Arrived” we can appreciate the different styles and his strong work as arranger which create an endless string of feelings, counting with the magnificent Peter Erskine and the wonderful sax player Patxi Pascual.

We can also delight in the mixture of styles and colors, with two excellent singers Machan Taylor and Lucy Lummis, who interpret two marvelous tracks on this CD.

As the author says “Thousand Miles” is a mixture of different styles he has interpreted throughout his career and has also tried to describe different moments of his life.

Tracks

1. Tornado Tango
2. Lucy
3. 3x4
4. Life's a Treasure
5. I Saw You
6. Childs
7. Thousand Miles
8. We Arrived
9. At Home (End)

Musicians

Peter Erskine
Paul Wertico
Mark Egan
Machan Taylor
LucyLummis
Patxi Pascual
Adalberto Cevasco
Gabriel Szternsztejn

Recorded 2007 , ABT records Madrid , Puck Productions, Santa Monica California, Rats Howl Recording Skokie Illinois Chicago, Wavestones Records New York.