

KRÖKE - Party Hard

"Party Hard" is the first solo album by "Kröke" in which the multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and singer Gregor Berger has processed his musical experience in hard rock and alternative music. His daughter Marlies was always at hand when designing the songs and selecting the riff ideas, and the headbang factor finally decided.

Guitar skills used to be brought into the band "Ragin' F". In the first solo album, all instruments and vocals were taken over by Gregor Berger, except for the drums on the songs Funky Witches, T.E.V.H, Fire in your eyes and Empty Promises.

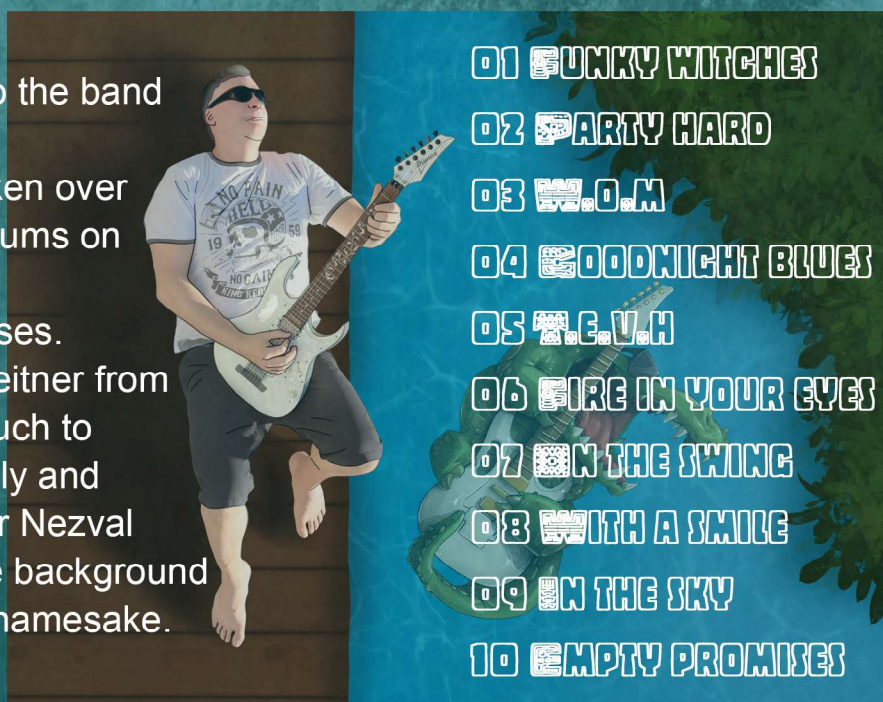

The experienced drummer Rene Leitner from Granitarium brought his musical touch to these songs. The ladies of the family and production-technical mentor Gregor Nezval alias "Saiko" also helped shape the background vocals on Party Hard, the album's namesake.

Have fun on the musical journey through the rock fantasy world of Kröke.

The songs include blues borrowings, funky riffs, love songs and of course rocky guitar-heavy stoner.

Themes such as love, party, fantasy, but also saying goodbye to loved ones are dealt with in the songs.
