FOUNTAIN OF EMOTIONS

Sagar Siddham, a Mumbai based musician, explores the complexities of emotions and expressions in his compositions for the album titled 'Fountain of Emotions'.

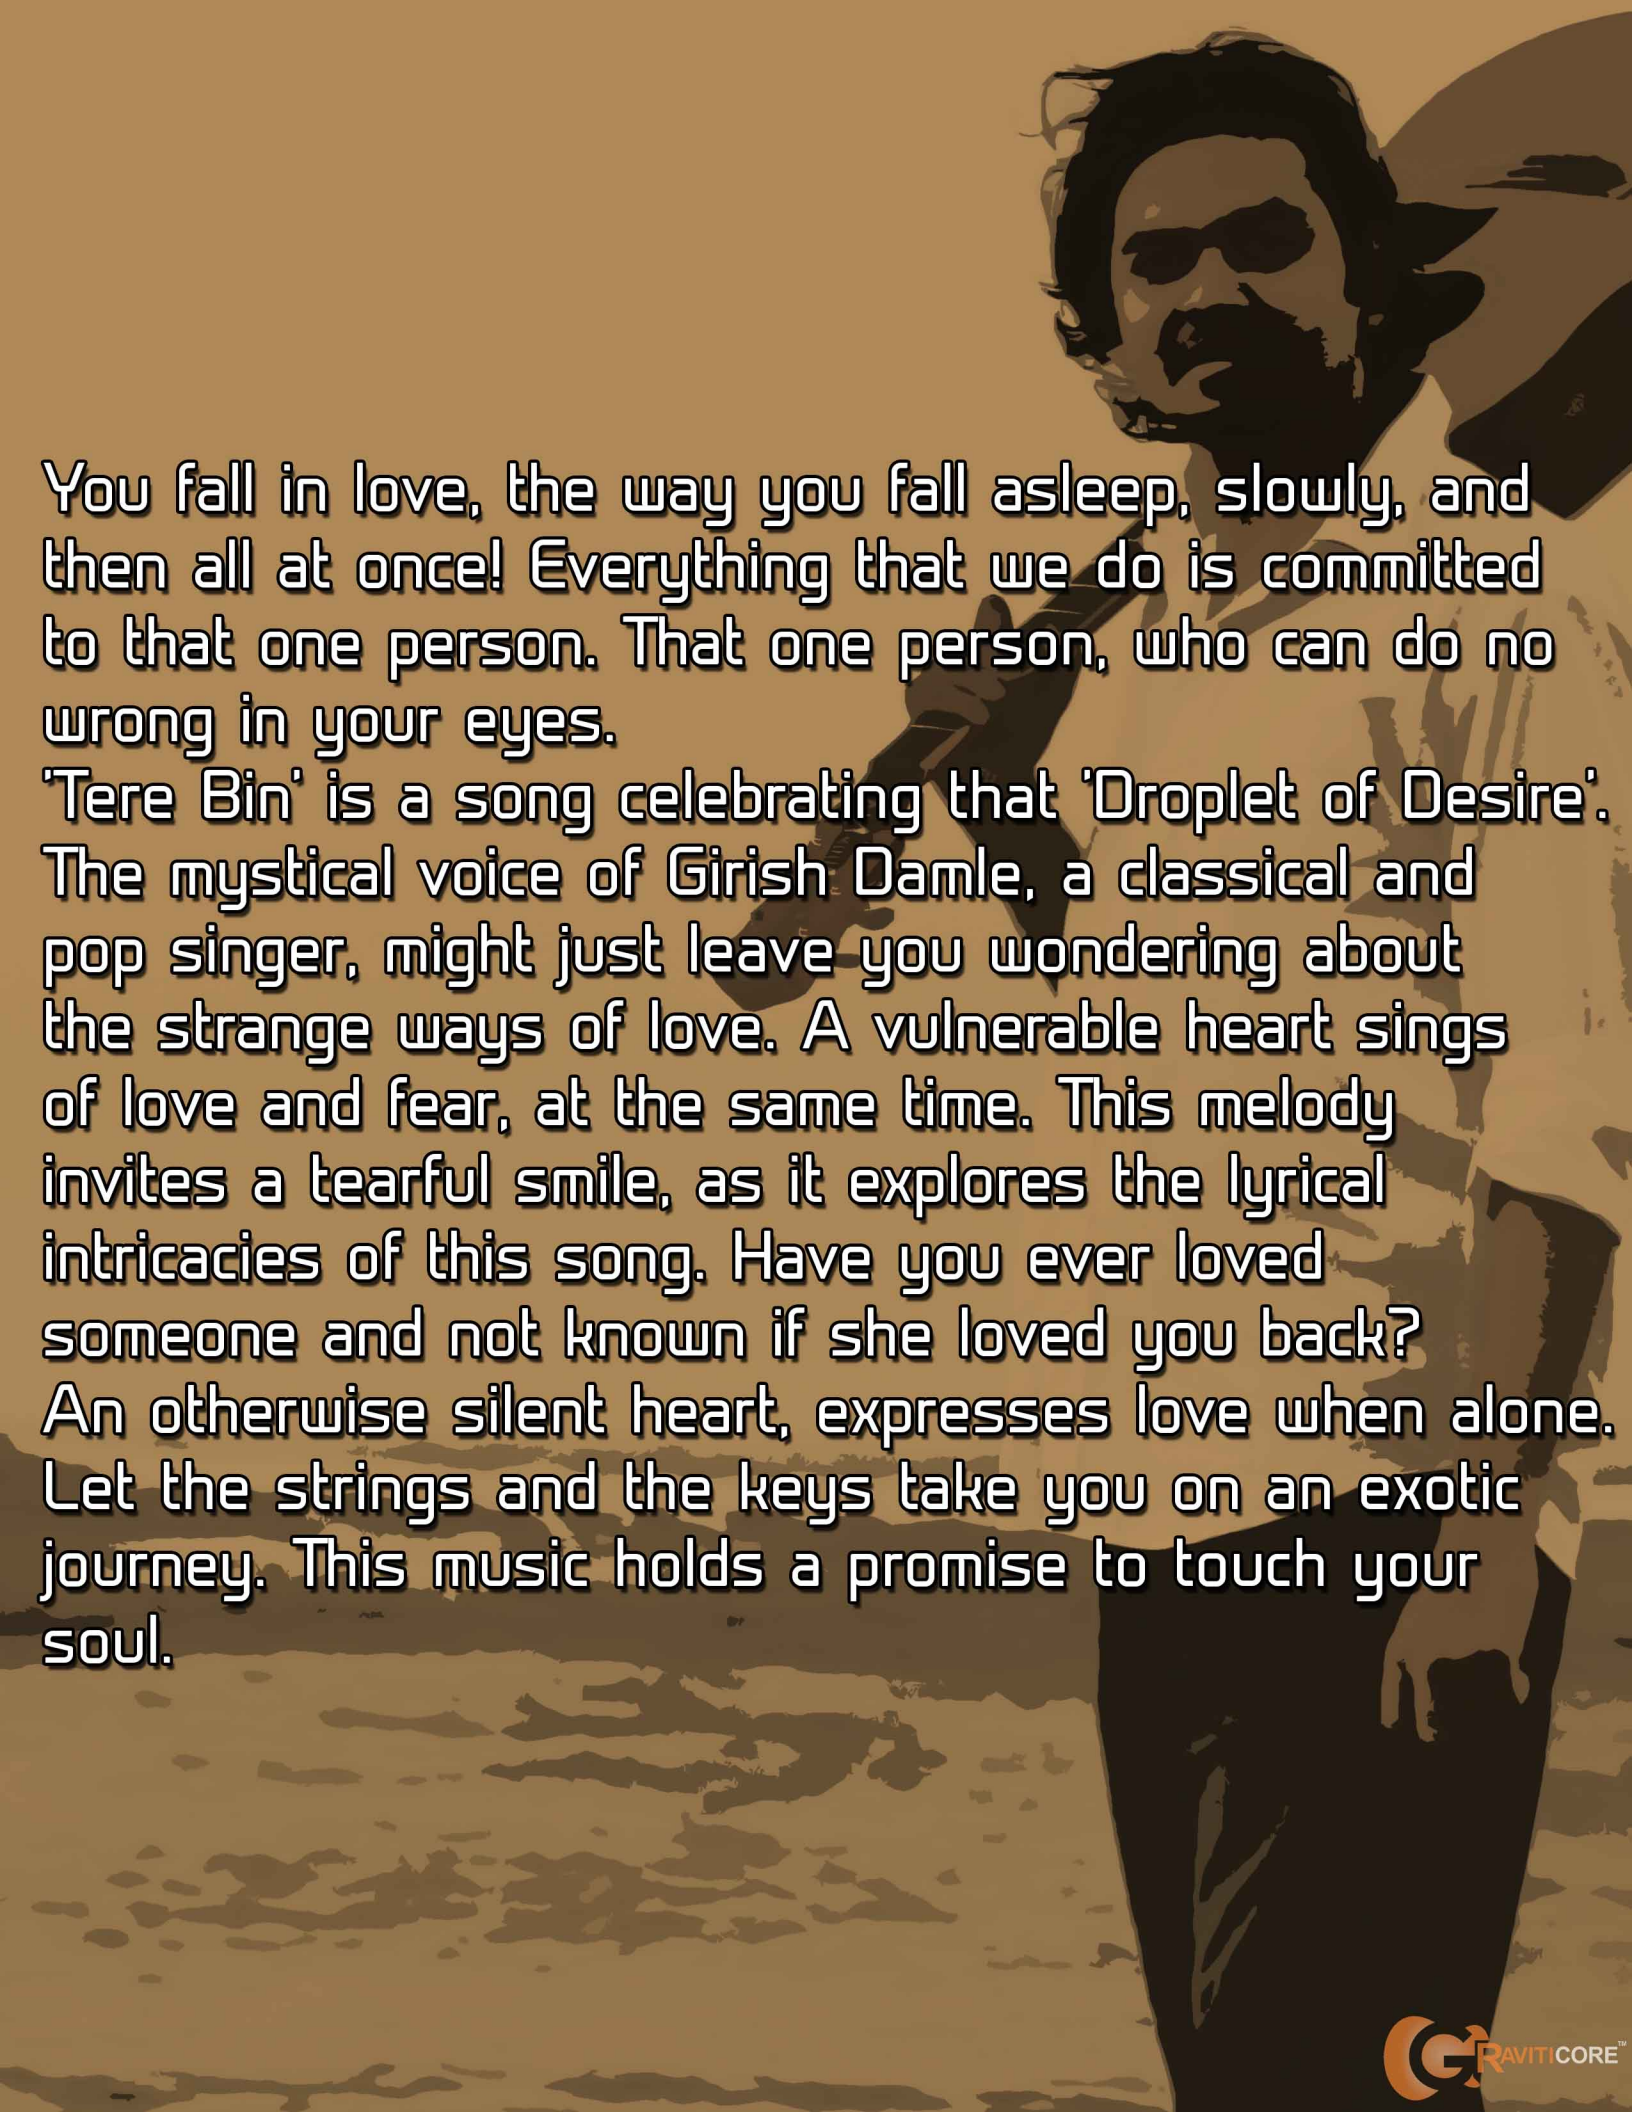

These lyrical notes were penned down, when a heavy heart was unable to hold the depth of emotional gravity. Get on board this journey, as he takes you through the magic of love, romance and inspiration. After years of composing, writing, arranging and playing music, the artist has specifically chosen these three compositions for 'Fountain of Emotions'.

We all have been in love at least once in our Lifetime. It may or may not have reached its desired end. But that little droplet of love never failed to drench our hearts in sweet pain.

'Aa Beh Zara' is a song dedicated to all those incomplete love stories. To those moments that taught us to love without fear. Just sit back and enjoy as Sagar Siddham sings of romantic evenings. Let the lyrics take you down a memory lane. Rocky Marcus will capture your attention with Harmonica, one of his many musical skills. This song is sure to get your feet tapping as the tiny hand percussions indulge in a playful banter. Experience the rhythm sync with your heartbeats! Celebrate the innocence of young love with 'Aa Beh Zara'!

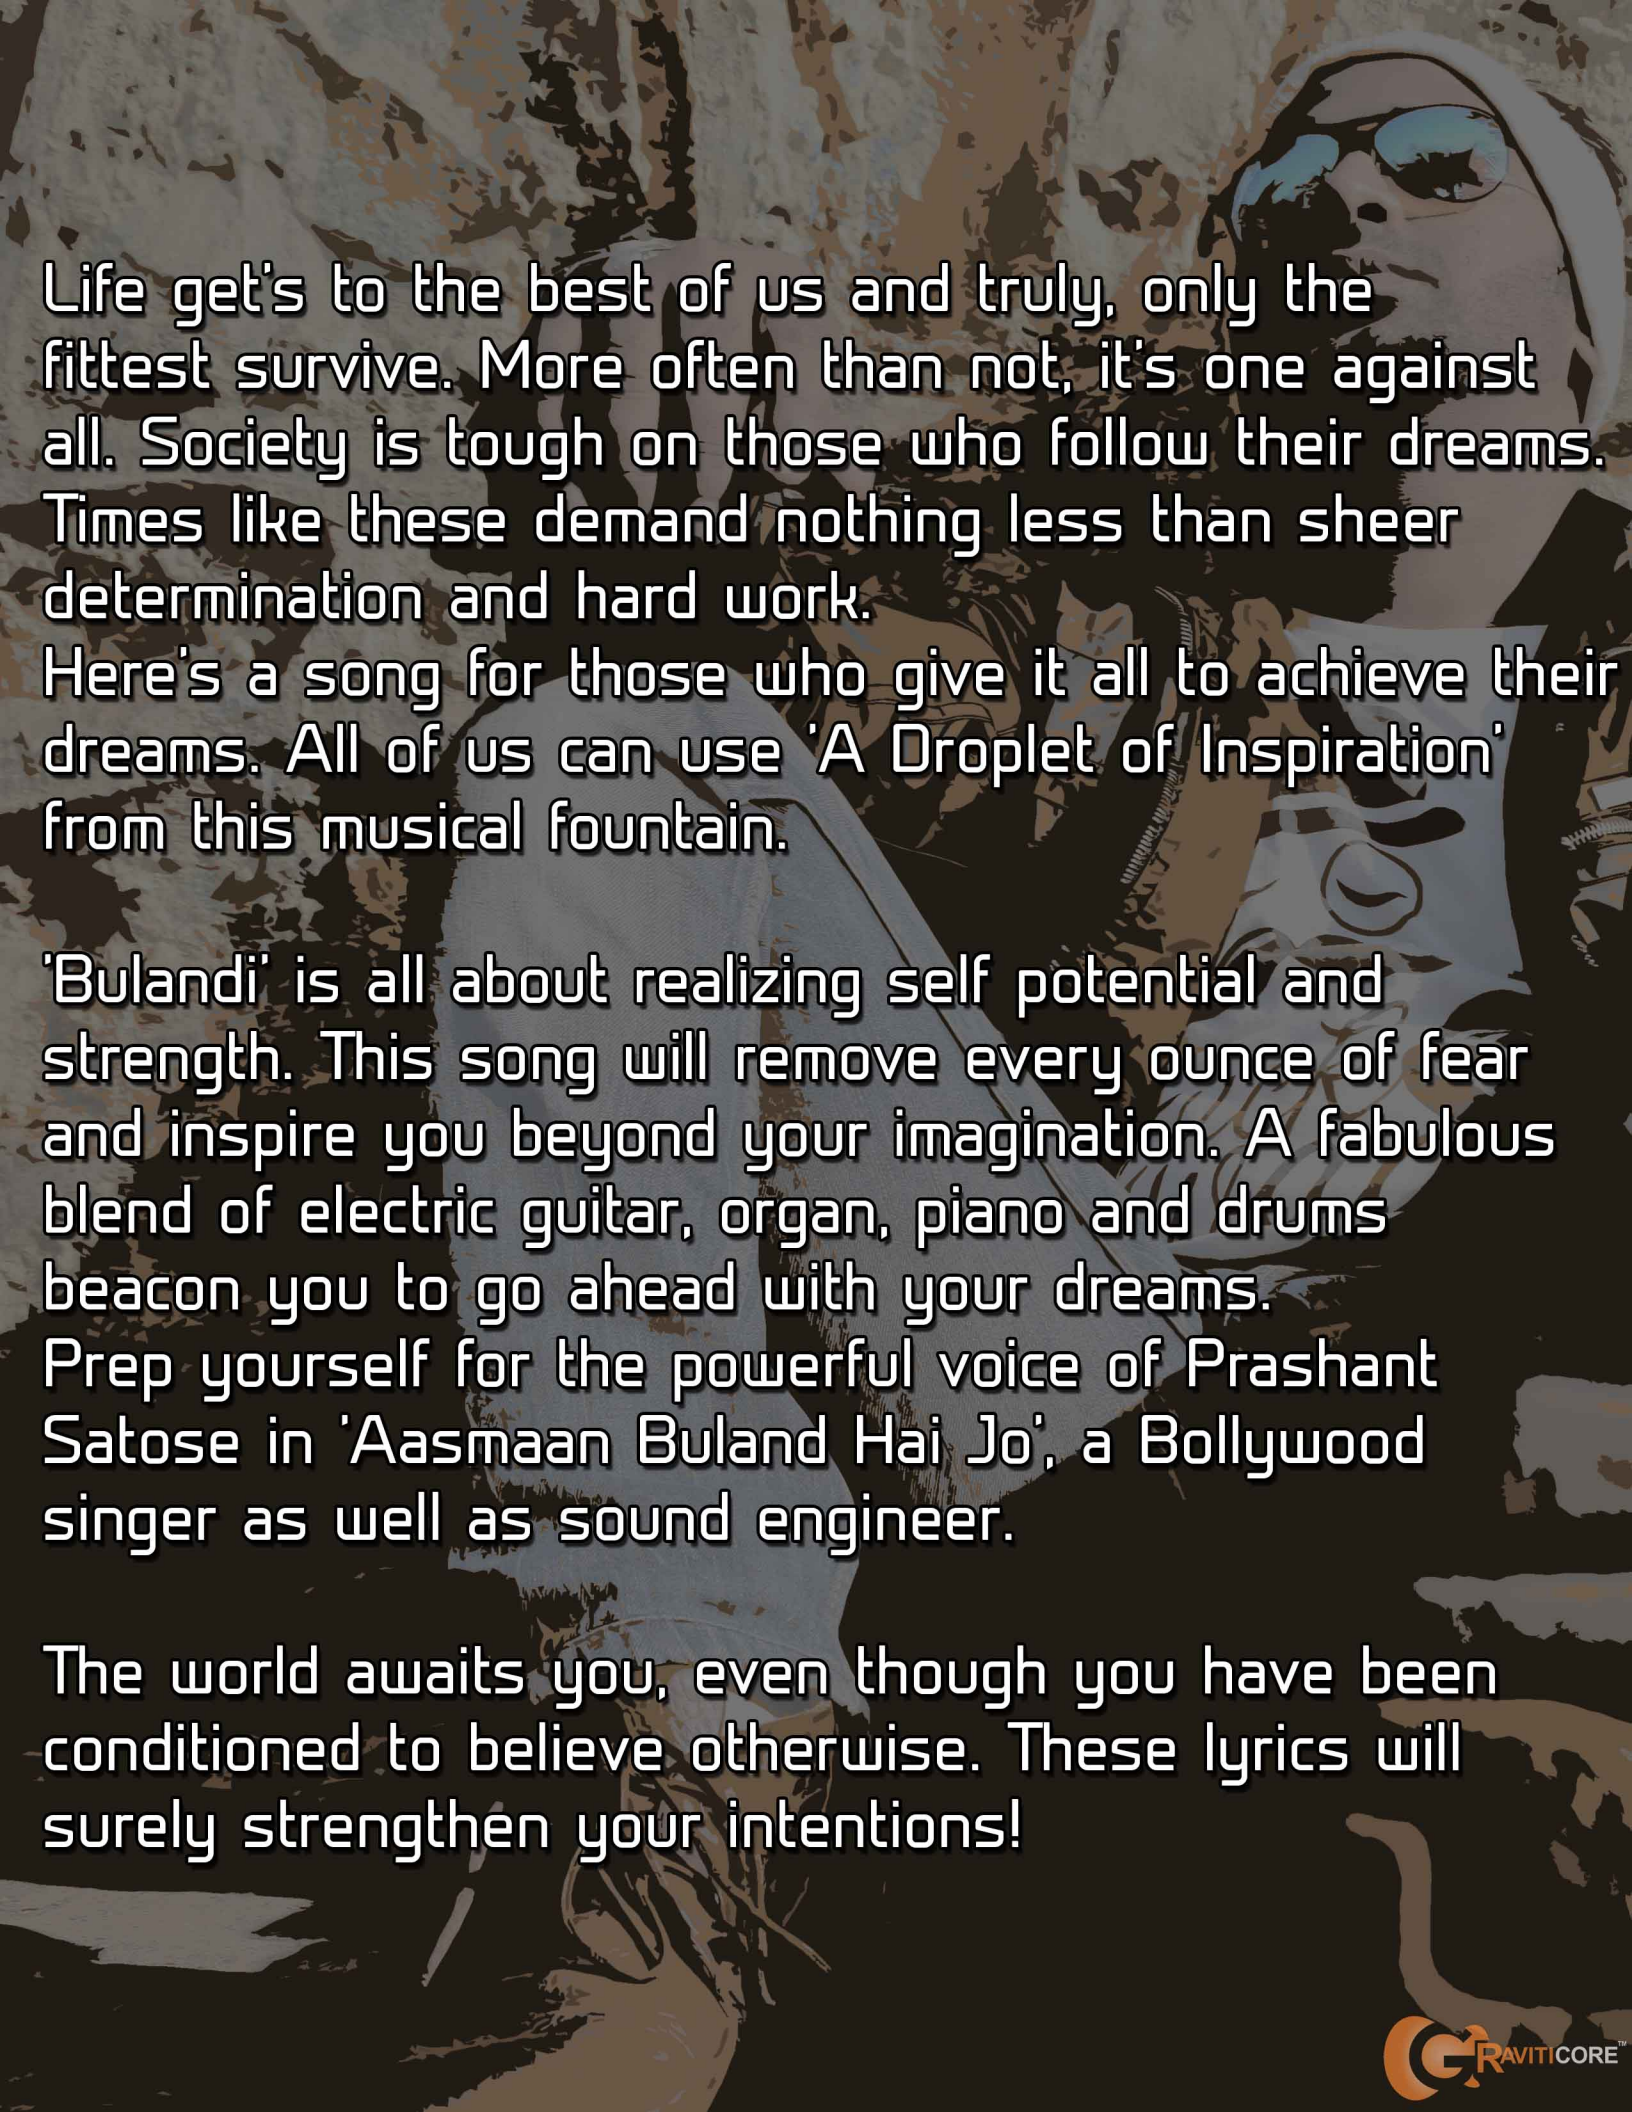

You fall in love, the way you fall asleep, slowly, and then all at once! Everything that we do is committed to that one person. That one person, who can do no wrong in your eyes.

'Tere Bin' is a song celebrating that 'Droplet of Desire'. The mystical voice of Girish Damle, a classical and pop singer, might just leave you wondering about the strange ways of love. A vulnerable heart sings of love and fear, at the same time. This melody invites a tearful smile, as it explores the lyrical intricacies of this song. Have you ever loved someone and not known if she loved you back? An otherwise silent heart, expresses love when alone. Let the strings and the keys take you on an exotic journey. This music holds a promise to touch your soul.

Life gets to the best of us and truly, only the fittest survive. More often than not, it's one against all. Society is tough on those who follow their dreams. Times like these demand nothing less than sheer determination and hard work. Here's a song for those who give it all to achieve their dreams. All of us can use 'A Droplet of Inspiration' from this musical fountain.

'Bulandi' is all about realizing self potential and strength. This song will remove every ounce of fear and inspire you beyond your imagination. A fabulous blend of electric guitar, organ, piano and drums beacon you to go ahead with your dreams. Prep yourself for the powerful voice of Prashant Satose in 'Aasmaan Buland Hai Jo', a Bollywood singer as well as sound engineer.

The world awaits you, even though you have been conditioned to believe otherwise. These lyrics will surely strengthen your intentions!
