

Cerebral Apoplexy

Biography

Tom O. founded a musical project called Noisebureau in 1996.
In 1999, it was re-named to Cerebral Apoplexy.
In 2000, Tom released his first CA songs on mp3.de.

His first success was in making remixes for Mumpscut
on Bone Deeler, Evoke, Cannibal Anthem, Body Census Schädling, Fuckit and Siamese.

In 2005 Cerebral Apoplexy also released a track called Silent Assault on Dark Spy magazine. At the end of 2005, Onca joined Cerebral Apoplexy as a new member. From now on, she took over the female vocal parts and does some lyrics as well.

On April 7 2006, the first Cerebral Apoplexy CD called Cold Heart was released on Mental Ulcer Forces (a side label of Beton Kopf Media).
