SHORT INFO

Regarding subject matter "Nemesis" describes at best the direction of DEAD ALONE's new album. Devastation, death and sadness are the leading topics of this longplayer that is the most grown up and multi-faceted one of the group so far.

Between Death, Black and Doom Metal DEAD ALONE created their own multi-dimensional space for over ten years and develop it consistently with "Nemesis". Steadily changing between aggression and grief these ten new compositions are creating a vortex that tears the listeners right into the darkness and captures them merciless between these extremes. The drums were recorded at the "Devasoundz Studios" (SEPTICFLESH, ROTTING CHRIST) in Athens directed by Fotis Benardo while bass guitars, guitars and vocals were done at the "Grotesque Studios" in Munich. Besides this DEAD ALONE could win the composer Christos Antoniou (SEPTICFLESH, CHAOSTAR) over to write the orchestral arrangements for the song "The Awakening" that solidifies its atmosphere.

Due to a lot of successful gigs with bands like NOCTE OBDUCTA, MERCENARY, DER WEG EINER FREIHEIT, BELPHEGOR or EISREGEN and the shows at the EXTREMEFEST 2012 and the METALFEST AUSTRIA 2011 DEAD ALONE could make their mark as an uprising metal act!
