In autumn 1993 J.Honk – guitar, piano, vocals, Andy Bartosh – guitar, Harry Vinecome – bass and Oliver Gattringer – drums recorded the Classic Rock milestone-album „Live at the Garage“ in Vienna’s Feedback Sound Studios.

At that time the band was live hugely successful and the recording-sessions have been played also live without any overdubs except the electric-piano parts on all tracks, which have been added by J.Honk after finishing the basic band tracks.

Since then the singles „Blue Land“ and „Maybe“ are on radiostation-playlists all over the world. The CD is available on all download and streaming platforms worldwide.
