December, 2015 Agressiva 69 played live at the Club called 'Piękny Pies' in Cracow in Poland. Tomek Grochola, vocalist and co-founder of the band A69 has met there with Piotr Krompiewski (KrompRoom), who is a Polish electronic music producer, co-founder of Kromp Room Records label, who lives in Czech Republic. Between two musicians started co-operation, which resulted in released single titled ROAD on the 29th of March, 2017. Musicians have defined their music as trance-electronic-rock. After the release of the single the gentlemen decided to release remixes of ROAD. These artists have been invited to create new interpretations: Sebastian Mich (Sabes),

In addition there are also two remixes of KrompRoom. Along with ROAD-Remixes they want to start promoting the official name of their duo, that has born in collaboration between Tomek and Piotr. They plan to release next tracks but under the new name of the project: KINGS in WHITE.
