

LOST IN DESIRE PRESENTS NEW SINGLE PUT OUT THAT LIGHT

Alternative Rock
(Remixes: Techno - Synthpop – House)

Vienna 10.05.2013 – Since anticipation is the greatest joy, the Viennese band around songwriter Stephan Sutor now presents the third single “Put Out That Light” from the upcoming second studio album. In order to make the anticipation of the longplayer, which will be released in Fall, even sweeter, “Put Out That Light” including three remixes will be available as free download.

“Put Out That Light” sounds unusually raw compared to their previous work. The purist rock sound is convincing and the song works without any audible synthesizers. The dark undertone of the verse turns into an enigmatic ode to night in the symphonic chorus.

Nevertheless, devotees of machine music will be satisfied. For the remix with the most sounding title “3AM” Stephan himself indulged in techno nostalgia and twitched the buttons of his electronic tools to beam the listeners to a warehouse techno party of the 90s after the first booming bassdrum sound. The Americans Level 2.0 strike somewhat softer notes. The spherical soundscapes invite to wallow in melancholia and to let go off all wordly discomforts in the darkness of the night. The lounge house version by Markasmix radiates lightness and conveys the feeling of a comforting sunbath at the sea in the eveing.

Just on time for the album release on September 13th a tour around Europe is planned. Send your booking requests joanna@music-obscure.com !

Tracklist Put Out That Light:

1. Put Out That Light
2. Put Out That Light (3am Remix)
3. Put Out That Light (Level 2.0 Remix)
4. Put Out That Light (The Markasmix Remix)

About Lost in Desire

Lost in Desire was founded in 2008 as solo-project of Stephan. After a huge success with his electronic music he turned to participating in different productions and started to collect ideas for his own songs. At that time he found his own unique style and had his comeback in 2009 with his debut album: „My aim was to make my own and personal music, disregarding commercial formats. I started this project just for myself and didn't think a moment about whether anybody might like it or not.“

The remix album „Reborn from the Ashes“ followed in 2011, which contains a remixed version of every single original from the debut album. Contributions were made, among others, by Apoptygma Berzerk, Assemblage 23, Imperative Reaction and Whispers in the Shadow.

In the meantime Lost in Desire turned into a complete band consisting of four members which does not miss any possibility to rock with their fans. The upcoming album will be released in 2013 and will be accompanied by an extensive tour around Europe.
