Natural Blues - Elementary Power, Barnstorming, Diversified, Groovy, danceable!

Natural Blues has been founded 1982 by the Blues Harp player Heiko Petcke & singer/guitarist Norbert Egger as side project beside both City Blues Connection in Hamburg.

The ensemble is performing their barnstorming, diversified, groovy and danceable elementary power since the 1980s appropriate to the dimensions of the events in various instrumentations. After Blues harp player Heiko Petcke died in 2017 Norbert Egger re-formed the Band with the well-known musicians Stefan Schubert (guitar & vocals), Hubert Hofherr (Blues harp), Alex Meik (double bass) and Camillo-Mainque Jenny (drums). The band rocked very successfully every location, unforgettable the concerts in Rockhouse Salzburg and as support act for Jethro Tull in 2019! The elementary power thrills everywhere:

It's rousing, when band leader Norbert Egger gets his slide guitar screaming while crawling on his knees, Hubert Hofherr is blowing his burning Blues harp solo, Stefan Schubert spreads his brilliant improvisation from stage and any audience is amazed when Alex Meik plays his his double bass solo with his lightning fingers, always driven by the steady rhythm of Camillo-Mainque Jenny!

The remarkable versatile programm offers Blues of all eras of its history combined with an exciting show, involving the audience like no other Blues band!
