

NOPE - Superman

NOPE - presents the Single "Superman" from their forthcoming Album "Best Of - NOPE".

Initially launched as a private and intimate project from the creative minds Peter M. & Nana W., NOPE was founded in 1999 to reflect the emotions and feelings of the group. More than 10 years later the duo decided to present their personal lifetime period to a worldwide audience. Enjoy this trip to the late nineties - available via online download only.

Nana has seen a big chunk of the world by the end of the nineties. On her way she discovered the feeling of being at home without identifying with a certain location or role. When she came back to her birthplace, she still was in search for the one essence of being - the meaning of life in general as well as how to truly being herself. So she worked through her questions of love and life in the form of writing lyrics. Music as being the one language beyond mind and culture, was the perfect vehicle to transport the different colors a human soul can discover while wandering through this dimension. In the meanwhile, since the recordings of Nope, she has found her answers.
