London. UK

Radiosonic has just announced a debut single 'Love Embargo'. It features two original songs and quite a new approach to Joy Division's Atmosphere.

Song List:

1. Love Embargo 4:23
2. Blood 4:12
3. Atmosphere 3:57

Recorded and mixed at Radiosonic's Soundhaven studio. Mastered by a Grammy Award winning engineer - Dave Collins.

Radiosonic is a multimedia project of a London-based, Poland born, mixing engineer and musician - Robert Gula.

A self-performed and produced release tributes to and explores

Robert's early music influence in the vein of early 4AD catalogue, The Smiths, Bauhaus or The Sisters of Mercy.

In Radiosonic's world, 80s nostalgia flows equally with a lust for being lost on a dance floor, creating lush ambient textures, reverb laden synths and vocalising artefacts.

Lyric wise, the relation of love and human is emphasized, where the grit of love becomes a bunker sheltered from man's smallness.

Radiosonic's mission is to recreate that place, full of aesthetic deconstructions and sepulchral nocturnes where everything sounds like the last waltz at the death disco,
