

The Alice Charmers

The Alice Charmers are a group who have been playing and creating music together since Marathons, Opal fruits and Jif wandered the earth. A mix of Country, bluegrass and occasional Cajun blended with a joy of performing make any time spent in their company a charming time to be had by all.

"The Alice Charmers are one of those groups, that regardless of your favorite musical style, cannot help to leave you feeling, just that little bit better about life." Paul Burgum, BCT Inspire Events.

"If anyone thought Bluegrass and Country music could only come from the United States then the Alice Charmers exist to prove them wrong. Guaranteed entertainers and a unique piece of Boro's music!!!" Rikki Doolan CVFM.

"Absolutely brilliant." Boss Caine.

"Banjos, Beards, Bluegrass and Boro; The Alice Charmers bring the glorious sounds of the Deep South and add some spiky Teesside humor just for good measure. I challenge anyone, drunk or sober, young or old, able bodied or wheelchair bound, not to throw some shapes like a demented five year old, high on Rola-Cola." The Pissed Gig Attender, EXNE Online Magazine.

"Alice Charmers are the best raggle-taggle-fraggle-rocking, banjo beating bunch of boys or you will see for many a country mile. Infectious, stomping bluegrass beats and feel-good factor aplenty." Andrew Johnson, The Southmartins/Cherry Head, Cherry Heart.
