ICU TREATMENT

When I was young my father said: Take everything what you can get
But be yourself, honest and true ... 'cause lies come creeping back to you
First it didn't pay out well, acting true mostly gave me hell

I never felt that I'm matching to your kind of life, meaning all for you
I turn around, know you're pointing at me ... feels like running with a dislocated knee
Dislocated

At the age of twelve I started growing my hair ... four years later "L.A. Metal" was there
I was going out dressed like Tommy Lee, came an old men walking up to me
He said: Boy, you're really dressed like a Miss ... back in the 40's we would have killed you for this!

I never felt that I'm fitting in 'cause normal life is not my thing
Your horror clown with an evil charm ... it's like crawling with a dislocated arm
Dislocated

[Lead Guitar | Olaf]

Today I'm a father telling my girl: Do what you love but stick to your word
If you're standing tall, they gonna pay respect ... if you are right, never step back
In the end it will pay out well, but most of the time it will hurt like hell

I still don't think that I'm fitting in, still normal life is not my thing
Today I'm in peace with my evil charm ... it helped me climbing walls with a dislocated arm
