

ZEN RODEO

NEW ALBUM >ONE HOUR TWO DRINKS AND BANGKOK<

"Home-made rock's steady funky!" – the motto of Zen Rodeo.

Their collection comprises a lot of self-composed songs with a high recognition value.

How everything began...

In spring 2009 Mario Jaufer alias duke (voc), Andy Murko (bass) and Tom Wutte (guit) were searching for a drummer who would prove worthy for their beatbox. In Paul Zewell (drums, percussions) they finally found a living "metronome" and they started working on their first songs. Shortly after Mark Glawischnig completed the band with his guitar Chantal. Their classic Rock'n'Roll sound is also characterized by blues and funk elements, fat beats and crunchy riffs.

Have fun listening! God save funky Rock'n'Roll!!!
